

2026 FUELS CONFERENCE: A RETURN TO ALL OF THE ABOVE

Thursday, October 1, 2026 | 8:30 am - 4:00 pm
Federal Reserve Plaza, Boston, MA

New England's winters keep proving the point: fuel security is not a solved problem. Join industry leaders and market experts for a full-day conversation on the region's most pressing energy challenges; from the ongoing debate over natural gas exposure and what last winter taught us, to LDC planning considering reliability, affordability and climate goals, to the pipeline and LNG infrastructure developments that could reshape the region's supply picture. The future of New England fuels is on the table. Come ready to engage.
